

72ND YEAR.

RICHMOND, VA., SUNDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1922.

PRICE, SEVEN CENTS

NEW YEAR'S DAY HERE WILL BE VERY QUIET

Society to Call Only on the Governor, the Ancient Custom Being Unnoticed in Richmond Now—It Is a Time of Many Resolutions.

By Elizabeth Witt.

New Year's Day will dawn and set unusually quietly. I've always understood that the explosions only come after severe control under heavily proven resolutions. They are the products of exceedingly peaceful minds. Conditions in the morning will be favorable.

With the exception of the Governor's Mansion, which will keep open house tomorrow afternoon, the old custom, once observed throughout the city and still observed in some parts of the country, will pass unnoticed. Records of the New Year's Day of fifty years ago are full of the social spirit that held sway at that time. It was only the unforeseen that closed the doors of the houses of friends. Men in tall silk hats and women in crinkly silks rolled down the streets in the rickety old hacks of that day. Society went out calling. If the unforeseen appeared on the doorstep, a basket was hung on the door to receive the cards of those who called and the cards were carefully preserved.

But tomorrow—really isn't fair—society calls only on the Governor. And, the day being peaceful until the setting of the sun, society makes resolutions.

On Monday afternoon the annual Club luncheon will take place at 2 o'clock at the Woman's Club.

Monday evening Miss Agnes Moyer will be guest of honor at a dinner at the Country Club. On that evening the club celebrates the New Year.

Miss Margaret Powers will also entertain that evening in honor of Miss Katherine Braxton Valentine.

Miss Janie Rowe will be hostess at tea on Tuesday afternoon for the schoolgirl set.

Wednesday evening Miss Katherine Lyon Scott will be guest of honor at a theater party at the Academy of Music.

The wedding of Miss Katherine Braxton Valentine to Wilbur Kenneth Hawkins will take place Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at St. James Church. The ceremony will be followed by a reception.

On Wednesday evening Miss Sallie T. Cameron, mid-winter debutante, will be entertained at a dinner at the Commonwealth Club, the guests going later to the Richmond Hotel Winter Garden.

Miss William Duke will entertain the Writers' Club at her home in Glinter Park, Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Samuel Derieux.

Miss Eugenia Fairfax is giving a bridge party at her home in Larnum Court on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Also on Thursday afternoon there will be a card party given in honor of Misses Elizabeth Wood and Hannah Catherine Collier by Miss Frances Miller.

On Friday afternoon Misses Grace and Louise Sloan will be hostesses at a tea for Misses Elizabeth Watson and Hannah Collier.

Taylor-Corley Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Porterfield Taylor, Jr. announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Robins, to Frank Winston Corley, son of John Taylor, Jr. and the late Mrs. Corley.

The wedding will take place early in January.

Holiday Decorations Used.

The home of Mrs. Archer Jones, on West Franklin Street, was attractively fixed with Christmas greens for the buffet dinner given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Watson last night.

In the dining-room, red flowers were used as a centerpiece and red candles in antique candlesticks lighted the room.

Mrs. Jones, who received with Miss Watson, wore a beige colored dress and a corsage bouquet of violets.

Assisting Mrs. Jones were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Augustine, Jr., Miss Alice Reed Jones, Mrs. Stuart Boone.

Served at the punch bowl, Miss Watson wore a dress of broadened silver cloth.

Pretty Table Last Night.

The table was prettily set with red flowers and red candles in silver candlesticks at the dinner given last night by Mrs. Dailam Barkdale.

The affair was given in honor of Misses Alma Cannon and Jennie Barkdale. Members of the debutante set were included in the invitations.

Interesting Guest This Week.

Mrs. Samuel Derieux, of New York, fiction editor of the Delinquent Magazine, will be the guest of Mrs. William Duke, at her home in Glinter Park.

Mrs. Duke will entertain the Writers' Club on Wednesday evening in honor of her guest. At that time, Mrs. Derieux will speak, introduced by Miss Margaret Montague.

At the Blue Teapot Inn.

Interesting Richmond guests at the Blue Teapot Inn, on the Curle's Neck Road, last week were Misses Sarah and Helena Caperton, Russell Parrish, Thomas Mahone, Mr. and Mrs. George Gibson, Patrick and Stuart Gibson.

Home From Wedding.

Mrs. Henry Clay Watkins has returned to her home in this city, after a visit to Durham, N. C., where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elliott Crews, for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Ethel Marion Crews, to Kenneth Underwood Watkins.

Collegiate School Class Reunion.

The 1922 class of Collegiate School for Girls held their first annual reunion on last Wednesday. Nineteen members of this class are in college or doing advanced work in music or art this winter. Members of the class met at Collegiate School at noon and after a social hour, motored down to Rose Bowl Inn, where luncheon was served. Later on, the party enjoyed the matinee performance of Marie Cahill, in "Alas, My Pepp." Members of the 1922 class are Margaret Barker, Virginia Barras, Elizabeth Bowles, Margaret Conine, Virginia Cowin, Elinor Curry, Margaret Dennis, Helen Dowell, Alice Frischborn, Virginia Geo-

WILL VISIT AMERICAN EMBASSY

Miss Caroline Byrd Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Lewis, of this city, who has been visiting her cousins, Major and Mrs. S. C. Talbott, at Coblenz, Germany, since July. Miss Lewis has been much entertained in army circles and will be the guest of Miss Houghton at the American embassy in Berlin this winter.

Ernestine Grant, Martha Harrison, Jane Libby, Mary Bruce Mann, Marietta Mauck, Helen McCalley, Frances Morgan, Dorothy Norvell, Bertha Powell, Mary Paul Reid, Sue Sharp, Marion Carter Snow, Florence Talley, Nancy Thomason, Alice Williams, Susanne Williams, Miss Alice Grey Welsh, sponsor for the class of 1922, chaperoned the party.

Miss Elizabeth Ingles Watkins left Friday for Trenton, N. J. She will attend a New Year's house party given by Miss Elizabeth Warren during her stay. Miss Watkins will return to Richmond the latter part of next week.

Jeffries-Daniel Wedding.

The historic old Fork Union Baptist Church, of Fluvanna County, was the scene of a beautiful wedding, December 27, at 6 o'clock, when Miss Marion Bruce Daniel became the bride of Robert Somple Jeffries, of Norfolk. The church was effectively decorated in Christmas greens, white roses and tall candles. Rev. Cosby Robinson and Dr. Sparks Melton performed the ceremony.

The bridesmaids wore quaint taffeta frocks of different colors and carried arm bouquets of pink roses. They were Misses Narcissus Kiddick, of Raleigh, N. C.; Virginia Demott, of Lynchburg; Narcissus Daniel, of Weldon, N. C.; Nancy Payne, of Fluvanna; Bernice Burgess, of Fork Union, and Katherine Demott, of Lynchburg. Little Ellis Pollard Snead and Winston Payne Burgess were pages, dressed in white satin suits. They carried a French costume of gold over silver cloth, carrying a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses.

The bride entered with her father, Raleigh Travers Daniel, of Weldon, N. C. She wore a dress of white sequins over satin with a long court train. Her veil of Blushon tulle fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The groomsmen were Dr. George Snead, of Fork Union; Messrs. Sidney Allen, of Greensboro, N. C.; Mecheson Daniel, of Weldon, N. C.; Joseph Snead, of Fork Union, and Edward S. Perry, of Culpeper. The groom was attended by Carol Jeffries, of Greensboro, N. C., as best man. Mrs. Raleigh T. Daniel sang and Mrs. Alexander played the wedding march. This marriage united prominent old Virginia and North Carolina families. The bride is the granddaughter of Captain and Mrs. Charles Goodall Snead, of Fork Union, and the daughter of Raleigh T. Daniel, of Weldon, N. C. The groom is the son of the late Judge and Mrs. John Lewis Jeffries, of Culpeper.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Daniel, of Weldon; Mrs. A. S. Allen, of Weldon; Mrs. R. T. Daniel, of Weldon; Carroll Jeffries and Sid Averett, of Greensboro; Mrs. Elliott Averett and Miss Martha Mosby Averett, of Chatham, N. J.; Eugene Daniel, of Weldon; Dr. Sparks Melton, of Norfolk; Mrs. W. E. Hatcher, of Richmond; Mrs. C. L. Demott, of Lynchburg; Miss Narcissus Daniel, of Weldon; Miss Narcissus Kiddick, of Raleigh, and Mrs. J. H. Sellinger, of Norfolk. Immediately after the ceremony a buffet supper was given the bridal party and a few intimate friends at the Old Homestead, the home of the bride's grandparents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries left for an extended Southern tour.

Annual Meeting Followed by Tea.

The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will have its annual meeting on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the John Marshall house. The meeting will be followed by a tea to which all members of the organization are invited.

Guest of Mrs. Ayres.

Charles Preston Lunsford, of "Elysaville," Roanoke, is the holiday guest of his cousin, Charles Lunsford Ayres and Mrs. Ayres, at their home in Glinter Park.

Hall-Chappell Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chappell announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Hamilton, to William H. Hall, of Eastern Shore, and Richmond. The wedding will take place early in February.

Carr-Burke Wedding.

A wedding of much interest in Richmond and West Point was that of Miss Margaret Anderson Burke and Richard Henry Carr, which took place at St. Mark's Church on Wednesday, December 27. Rev. Dr. W. L. Smith, rector of the church, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, entered the church with her brother, George H. Burke, Jr. Her dress was of white satin and Duchess lace with a tulle veil and orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Roy Burke, who was her sister's only attendant, wore orchid-colored taffeta, and a black picture hat. Her flowers were pink and lavender sweet peas. Little Sophie Vaughan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vaughan, of Highland Park, was flower girl. Miss Stutz, organist of St. Mark's, rendered the wedding march, and Mrs. Louise Frances sang, "I Love You Truly." The ushers were Messrs. Jack Marshall, Lewis Welford, Alfred Hargrave and Ernest Thrift, all of West Point.

The groom's best man was his brother, Beverly Carr, of West Point. Mr. and Mrs. Carr left immediately after the ceremony for New York and other Northern cities.

A small reception was given the bridal party on the evening before the wedding at the home of the bride's parents, 202 North Shepherd Street.

Will Return Monday.

Miss Frances Watkins, of 4002 Hermitage Road, is spending the Christmas holidays with Miss Elizabeth Hardy, at 724 Raleigh Avenue, Norfolk. She will return to her home on Monday, January 1.

Mills-Volkman.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Volkman, 3304 Holmead Place, N. W., Washington, was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday evening, December 23, when their daughter, Emma Rose, became the bride of Byron Henry Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Mills, of Owensboro, Ky. The parlor was attractively decorated with palms and cathedral candles were used for lighting. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Lecher, of Concordia Lutheran Church. Ralph Bissnet had charge of the music. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Minnie Volkman, sister of the bride, sang Volkmann's "Requiem" and "Requiem" from Jocelyn was softly played during the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a blue duvet de laine costume suit with a blue collar and wore a corsage bouquet of orchids. Miss Emily C. Bobbitt, of Richmond, was maid of honor, and the bride's only attendant. She was groomed in a jade green Georgette gown with silver trimmings and carried a bouquet of Mademoiselle Butterflies roses. Adolph Volkman, Jr., was best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was held and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Mills left for a Northern trip. They will be at home after January 10, at 204 North Sycamore Street, Richmond.

Entertainment Wednesday.

An entertainment was given at the home of Miss Kate Holleran on Wednesday evening. The home was artistically decorated in holly and evergreen. The evening included both games and dancing. Those present were: Misses Louise Alexander, Alice Callahan, Gertrude

(Continued on Second Page.)

Thalhimer Brothers

Foreign Offices in: London, Paris, Brussels, Belfast, Milan and Shanghai.

ANNOUNCING

A Specially Prepared
Display ofTRAVELING
HATS—for Southern Tourists
—Voyagers to the Bermudas
—and holiday visitors who desire a New Hat for the trip back home

THOSE fortune-favored individuals who love to bring down upon their shoulders the rays of a summer sun when really winter is the reigning king—have already turned active thoughts toward their fitting.

And one would plan a trip if it were for no other reason than to find occasion to wear one of these delightfully fetching Hats. Three of them are illustrated, and scores of others await your pleasure.

THIS Italian Hair Cloth Hat trimmed with burnt goose, complete with black fibre traveling case, priced at $18.50.

THIS "Cecile" Hat of black Italian Hair Cloth trimmed with burnt goose, complete with traveling case—$18.50.

ILLUSTRATED

A chic new turban of Italian Hair Cloth, effectively trimmed with glycerine ostrich. $18.50—complete with black fibre traveling case.

Materials

Italian Hair Cloth—Faïlle
Visca Cloth—Baronet Straw
Combinations of Hair Cloth and Silk—Satins—etc.

Trimmings

Burnt Goose—Embroidery
Jewels—Glycerine Ostrich

Prices

Many at $15.00 and $18.50—
Others up to $35.00

MILLINERY SECTION—THIRD FLOOR

Store Closed All Day Monday

ONCE again the turn of the year is here, and one looks backward with a satisfaction of things accomplished, and forward with a desire to see bigger, better things materialize.

IT seems appropriate at this time to express our appreciation for the large patronage we have enjoyed during 1922, and our hope that we may continue to serve even more successfully during 1923.

THE opening of our new store has been a spur to greater activity. Old friends and new friends have generously favored us. We look cheerfully forward to the coming year with a broader vision of progress and added opportunity to serve.

Thalhimer Brothers